Practice Corner

1. My Mother

My Mother is very important person in my life. She is beautiful and kind. She gets up early morning and completes all the household work. She prepares my lunch for school. She makes tasty food for us. She also takes me for outings on holidays. She helps me in my studies. She always stands by me in difficult times. Whenever I am sick she is the one who spend sleepless nights to take care of me. No person in this world can replace my mom.

2. My Favourite Story Books

I love reading good books. I have maintained a small library in my study room. I never feel bored in the company of books as they are my best friends. Recently, I read the epic Ramayana in English, written by Valmiki. This book has become one of my best books. It represents the life of Lord Rama. By reading the book I learnt the sufferings he under went to uphold his principles. I also learnt the principles of brotherhood in Lakshmana and Bharata.

I feel like reading the book again and again. It refreshes my mind and gives me inspiration every time I read it.

3. A Scene at the Railway Station

A railway station is a place of hustle and bustle as traveling by trains is very cheap and comfortable.

Last Sunday, I went to New Delhi railway station to see off my sister. She was going to Mumbai. The waiting hall was crowded. All were in a hurry. A passenger's pocket was picked and the pick pocket was caught red-handed. The people handed him over to the police. I took the ticket and came off, then we reached the platform. The scene there was very interesting. The coolies were sitting in a line. The vendors were busy. Some people were sitting on the benches and others were moving up and down the platform. My sister got a seat near the window. Soon it was the time for train to depart. All started waving there and the station was a deserted place.

4. The Game You Like the Most

I am very fond of games and sports, but the game I like most is cricket. Cricket first originated in England and then it spread to the other countries of the world. There are two kinds of cricket matches. There are "test match" and one "day match". There are eleven players in each team."

The team which wins the toss decides who will bat first. The team that makes the maximum number of runs is declared as the winner. I practice a lot and try to improve my game so that I can play for my country some day.

Chapter 19

One upon a time a tortoise named Kambugriva lived in a lake. He had two swans as his best friends. All three lived on the banks of the lake. They enjoyed each other's company. One year there was no rain and the water of the lake started to dry. The swans were worried for the tortoise. One of the swans said, "How will you survive in this lake? All the water will dry up very soon". The tortoise told his friends to search for another lake for him which was full of water. The tortoise said, "Once you find another lake, you can carry me to the lake with the help of a stick. I will hold the stick with my mouth where as both of you can hold the stick at the either ends and fly".

The swans flew of distant lands and at last they found a lake which had plenty of water in it. They returned to the tortoise with a stick and asked him to hold the stick in his mouth so that they could carry him away from that place. They warned the tortoise not to speak or he will fall off. Finally they started flying. On the way they happened to pass a village. The people of the village shouted. "Look the swans are carrying the tortoise. Hearing this the tortoise opened his mouth to reply. He went down the same moment he opened his mouth. The swans could not do anything. They felt bad for the tortoise.

Moral: Always listen to the advice of others.
